

DOOLIN

Doolin is a small charming seaside village on the northwest coast of County Clare. It is situated just 8km from the Cliffs of Moher, 6km from the famous Spa town of Lisdoonvarna and just a ten minute drive from the town of Lahinch.

Traditionally a fishing village, Doolin is now better known for its traditional music.

Doolin Holiday Homes are located just over a mile from the centre of Doolin village making them the ideal choice for your holiday break.

We'll leave the light on for you

DOOLIN HOLIDAY HOMES

DOOLIN, CO.CLARE, IRELAND

We'll leave the light on for you

Reservations:
Dream Ireland Holiday Homes,
Lodge Wood, Kenmare,
Co. Kerry, Ireland
Tel: +353 (0)64 41170
Fax: +353 (0)64 41839
E-mail: info@dreamireland.com
Website: www.dreamireland.com

DREAM IRELAND

HOLIDAY HOMES

Ireland's leading holiday home rentals

THE ACCOMMODATION

Doolin Holiday Homes is a brand new development of detached bright and modern cottages. Each of the Cottages has three bedrooms and can comfortably accommodate up to six people in a double bedroom downstairs and two twin bedrooms upstairs. All bedrooms are ensuite and there is also a guest toilet downstairs.

The open plan living/ dining room is bright and airy and features a large window to allow in natural light. There is a comfortable suite of furniture, colour television and a traditional stove style electric fire.

The kitchen is fully equipped with all modern conveniences including Microwave, Electric Oven, Washer/ Dryer and Dishwasher.

Each of the houses has its own private parking and small garden area.

VISITOR ATTRACTIONS

The Cliffs of Moher - Just a five minute drive from Doolin Holiday Homes are the world renowned Cliffs of Moher. Defiantly standing as giant natural protection against the might of the great Atlantic Ocean the Cliffs rise to over 215m (700ft) and stretch for over 8km.

Lahinch Seaworld and Leisure Centre - Seaworld offers a variety of facilities in two main sections namely the swimming complex and the Atlantic Aquarium. The swimming complex features a 25m deck level pool, kiddies pool, jacuzzi and sauna and the Aquarium features a fascinating array of marine specimens including a lobster breeding station and a blow-hole wave explosion.

The Burren - The northwestern corner of County Clare is home to over 100 square miles of bare pale limestone known as The Burren. What makes this magnificent landscape truly spectacular are the pockets of plants and flowers interspersed among the crevices in the rock.

Aillwee Cave - Located 20 minutes drive from Doolin, Aillwee Cave is one of the west of Ireland's top tourist attractions with its stalactites, stalagmites, relics of bears and Waterfall. Open daily from mid March - October.

Aran Islands - The Aran Islands are one of the last outposts of Gaelic civilisation. They are stunningly beautiful and feature ancient relics of prehistoric civilisations. Doolin operates the shortest daily boat trips to all three of the Aran Islands".

LOCAL ACTIVITIES

Dolphin Watching - The mouth of the River Shannon is home to Ireland's only resident community of bottle-nose dolphins who thrive in this safe habitat. Dolphin watch boat tours operate during the months of May-October from the towns of Kilrush and Carrigaholt in Clare.

Golf - Doolin has its own excellent nine hole pitch 'n' putt course and Lahinch's two golf Courses - the Old Course and the Castle Course are located just a 20 minute drive away.

Walking - Doolin is centrally located on the Burren Way Walking Route which is a 26 mile (42 km) signposted walking trail from the town of Liscannor, along by the Cliffs of Moher, on to Doolin and into Ballyvaughan.

Diving - With its network of sub-marine caves Doolin offers some of the best diving sites on the West Coast.

Caving - Caving is a popular activity in Doolin and attracts enthusiasts from all over the world. The Doolin Cave System is over 10.5km long and guided trips can be arranged locally.

Horse Riding - The Burren is an ideal region to discover on horseback and there are many other exciting trekking options available around Doolin including beach and cliff top routes.

Traditional Music - Doolin is known as a centre for traditional Irish Music and attracts visitors from all over the world. Its pubs are famous for their spontaneous music "sessions" with local and visiting musicians.

Beaches - Within a ten minute drive of Doolin there are two fabulous beaches - beautiful Lahinch beach which is popular the world over with surfers and Fanore Blue Flag Beach with its fantastic sand dunes and shore fishing.

