

KILLORGLIN

Killorglin is a bustling town in the heart of county Kerry. It is located at the gateway to both the Ring of Kerry and the Dingle Peninsula and close to the cosmopolitan towns of Killarney, Kenmare and Dingle. The town offers a great selection of traditional Irish pubs and some fantastic restaurants and there is a host of activities within the town and its surrounds.

PUCK FAIR

Killorglin is home to one of Ireland's oldest street festivals - Puck Fair - which is held every year on the 10th, 11th & 12th August. The main events of the Festival include the traditional horse fair, parade and coronation ceremony of "King Puck", fireworks display, open air concerts and hours of family street entertainment.

Getting there

Killorglin is located approximately a 15 minute drive from the town of Killarney which is accessible by Mainline Train, Bus and Airplane into Kerry Airport. Cork Airport is just over an hour's drive away.

Directions

The Grove Lodge Riverside Holiday Homes are situated in the grounds of the Grove Lodge Country Club on the outskirts of Killorglin town.

THE ACCOMMODATION

Each of these 28 holiday homes has been thoughtfully and creatively furnished and finished. They all feature southerly aspects over the River Laune and panoramic views to the rear of Ireland's highest peaks - MacGillycuddy's Reeks.

There are both two and three bedroomed options available. Each of the units can accommodate up to five people and all bedrooms are ensuite. As an added luxury, the bathrooms feature jacuzzi baths.

There are two types of two bedroomed units. The Riverbank houses feature private patios and consist of a double and a triple bedroom. The open plan sitting room cum dining room leads directly onto the private patios and balconies through large French doors. The kitchens are fully equipped with all modern conveniences including fridge/freezer, microwave, dishwasher and washer/dryer. The remainder of the two bedroom units are split level duplexes with both bedrooms upstairs.

The three bedroomed units consist of a double, a twin and a single bedroom.

Hardwood floors feature throughout these holiday homes and they have electric under floor heating with thermostatic controls in each room. Other facilities include direct dial telephones, stereo and cable TV.
