

LAHINCH

Lahinch is the ideal base to explore the diverse and beautiful Clare landscape. It has two kilometres of unspoiled blue flag beaches fringing Liscannor Bay. Visit the Burren, Cliffs of Moher, Bunratty Castle and Aillwee Caves or take a ferry to the wild and beautiful Aran Islands. The village is convenient to many excellent local restaurants and shops.

Listen to the best of Irish music in the pubs of Lahinch and nearby towns and villages. County Clare is acknowledged as the home of Irish traditional music and song.

THE LINKS HOLIDAY VILLAGE

LAHINCH, CO. CLARE, IRELAND

BRIGHT IDEA GRAPHIC DESIGN 064-37554

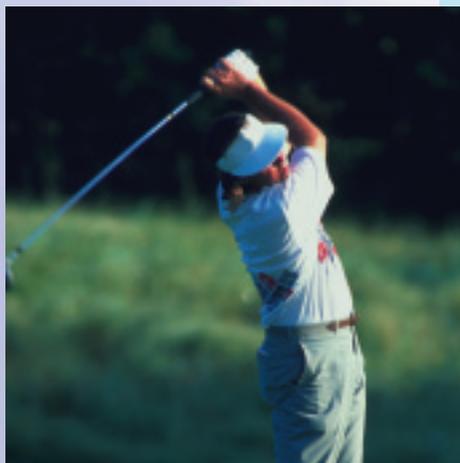

The Links Holiday Village, situated outside the town of Lahinch, is a purpose built holiday complex creatively developed to cater for a broad range of holiday makers. The more active holiday maker is attracted to The Links because it offers a rich variety of activity pursuits including golf, sea sports, tennis and horse riding, while visitors wishing to get away from it all can quietly relax and unwind.

ACCOMMODATION

The Links offers a choice of two, three and four bedroomed cottages equipped and designed for maximum comfort.

Each cottage has two bathrooms, modern fully equipped kitchen, and utility room with washing machine, tumble dryer, dishwasher, microwave, fridge freezer and all necessary kitchen utensils.

The bright and spacious living and dining area contains television, well-designed furniture and central heating. Bed linen is provided while cots and highchairs are available on request (please bring your own linen for cots). Tennis court on site.

LOCAL ACTIVITIES

Golf

Lahinch boasts two 18 hole golf courses. Lahinch Golf Course, established in 1892, is known as the St. Andrews of Ireland. Overlooking Liscannor Bay golfers can experience the sporting pleasure of playing a championship links course in breathtaking surroundings. Other Golf Courses close by include Kilrush, Kilkee, Woodstock, Ennis and the fabulous new Doonbeg Course. The Killimer Car Ferry brings the Kerry Championship courses of Ballyunion, Tralee & Killarney within easy reach.

Watersports

Lahinch is recognised as one of the most spectacular and cleanest seaside resorts in the country. It has lifeguards on duty during the peak season and because of frequent high surf it is considered one of the most exciting locations in the country for surfing and windsurfing.

Walking

The beach at Lahinch is fringed by a promenade - ideal for a short walk. Visitors seeking longer walks can enjoy the beautiful scenery of North Clare, the Burren or the wild and spectacular Cliffs of Moher.

Pony Trekking

Pony Trekking is available on the beautiful beach in Lahinch and is the perfect way to enjoy the breathtaking scenery of the area.

Cycling

Clare is an excellent destination for cycling offering a number of Cycling Routes to suit all levels of fitness and expertise.

Angling

Lahinch is an Angler's paradise offering Game, Coarse and Sea Angling options in the local area.

Seaworld

Lahinch offers visitors an exhilarating experience in Lahinch Seaworld and Leisure Centre. This truly unique experience can be enjoyed by all the family and provides a wonderful insight into the underwater life of the Atlantic Ocean. The Leisure Centre in Seaworld has a 25 metre pool, Jacuzzi and Sauna.

LOCAL ATTRACTIONS

- The Burren - 500 square kilometres of lunar-like landscape world famous for its incredible fauna growing from its limestone base.
- The Burren Display Centre in Kilfenora helps interpret this fascinating area with audio visual and display supports.
- The Cliffs of Moher - Just North of Lahinch these cliffs rise in places to over 215 metres (700 feet) and stretch for almost 8km.
- Aillwee Cave - an essential part of any tour to the region with its superb display of stalactites, stalagmites, relics of bears and waterfall.
- Lisdoonvarna in North Clare is Ireland's premier Spa town and its therapeutic mineral waters have been dispensed since the 18th Century. The town is also famous as being host to the September Matchmaking Festival (one of Europe's largest singles matchmaking festivals)
