

ENNIS

Ennis is the capital of County Clare and is world famous for traditional music. This ancient town's history combined with its famous narrow streetscapes and character buildings gives it a special and quite unique ambience.

Ennis was the Entente Florale European Gold Medal Winner in 2002. Intimate old shops abound in the narrow streets offering the best of food, crafts and clothing.

The town is surrounded by the River Fergus which divides and unites again forming the Island - Inis an Inish - from which Ennis derives its name. Recent years have seen the development of a delightful Riverside walk to enjoy the beautiful surroundings. Ennis also has its own 6 screen Multiplex Cinema.

The famous Clare towns of Lahinch, Doolin and Liscannor are all within easy driving distance of Ennis.
