

KENMARE

Kenmare on the sea enjoys a mild Gulf Stream climate which gives rise to moist winters and an all year round growing season. This has resulted in the survival of many unusual and tropical plants and flowers in the region.

The Irish name for Kenmare is Neidín, which means "little nest" as Kenmare is cradled between the MacGillycuddy Reeks and the Cahal Mountains. The town is also situated between two of the most beautiful touring routes in Europe - the Ring of Kerry and the Ring of Beara which make for very enjoyable day trips.

Kenmare is a designated Heritage Town of Ireland and the town offers a huge selection of places of historical interest to visit. Even strolling around the town is itself a pleasure with Kenmare having received awards from Entente Floral and the award for the Tidiest Town in Ireland in the year 2000.

Killarney is a 40 minute drive away and Cork City and airport are just over an hour's drive.
